Jesus — The Christ

The Lineage From Luke 3

"Luke traces it back to Adam to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of the hopes of all people."
—Rev. Frank Viola

The Lineage From Matthew 1

"Matthew traces Jesus' lineage from Abraham to emphasize Jesus' royal heritage."
—Rev. Frank Viola

Possible reason for the different genealogies of Matthew & Luke

Matthew	Luke
Joseph's ancestry	Mary's ancestry
Line of Royal Succession	Physical descent
Joseph's Father's line	Joseph's Mother's line

Joseph was a legal son of one father, and a physical son

"Jesus, ...being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph..."
—Luke 3:23

Abraham (GN 11:26–25:10; 1C 1:27; MT 1:1; LK 3:34) — Your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth

Anah is the name of a son of Seir in Genesis 36:20 and for a daughter of Zibeon in Genesis 36:2. (Although the ESV footnote for daughter says that it could also be "son").

"In his time the earth was divided" Possibly refers to the Tower of Babel.

Wives of Esau: Genesis 26:34 names Esau's wife Basemath as Ahimaat's daughter. Genesis 28:9 names Mahalath.

Genesis 26:34 names Basemath as the daughter of Elon the Hittite, while Genesis 36:2 names Adah.

Genesis 19:36: "Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father."
